a word from: Jeff

During 2021, our staff is taking turns introducing ourselves to you through these bulletin columns. Today, it's my turn to share.

I've been on staff with Cherry Hills for 30 years: as youth pastor (1984-1988) then as co-pastor and lead pastor (1995-present).

After my sabbatical in April, I'll return in January 2022 to step into a new full-time role on our staff as equipping pastor. I'll still teach several Sundays a year, but primarily focus on developing leaders, both inside and outside the church, and visit our global mission partners a couple times a year.

I'm motivated by Jesus' dream for us to be a healthy, vibrant church family, who builds up believers and reaches out to unbelievers. My top spiritual gift is encouragement and this shapes how I teach, coach and shepherd.

I've been married to Tricia for 39 years (this July 24th) and we have 3 kids (all married) and 5 grandchildren. I enjoy reading, walking, traveling, mint chocolate chip ice cream, drinking hot water and rooting for the St. Louis Cardinals.

At Cherry Hills, we want every person to be part of a life group, and Tricia and I are so thankful for ours, which has people who are all much younger than us. We look forward to being part of the next chapter with all of you. What an encouraging, giving church you are.

It's a privilege serving Christ with you,
Jeff
