

Who Is This God?
A Jealous God (Exodus 34:14)
Life Group Questions – May 29.2022

Connect

1. If you had to have the tail of any animal (fox tail, alligator tail, kangaroo tail, etc...) what kind of tail would you have?

Learn

2. This weekend was the conclusion of our series called “Who Is This God?” Reflecting on the series as a whole, did anything shift in how you think about what God is like?
3. What did you learn about God’s name from the sermon this week? What stood out to you? Many times answering this questions reveals how God was speaking to you.
4. Do you experience any envy in your own life? What provokes you to envy?
5. How is God’s jealousy distinct from the emotional life of humans or other so-called “gods”?
6. How are you learning to cultivate passionate devotion to God? What gets in the way of that? God is faithful even when we are faithless.

Care and Pray

As a reminder, the purpose of our groups is to care for each other, learn together, and pray together. Go around your group and check in with each other. How can you pray for each other this week? Finish by having each person (or couple) pray for the person or couple on their left.
