

“Do you love me?” (John 21:15–19)
Life Group Questions – April 27, 2025

Connect

1. Now that Lent, a season of fasting, is over, and Eastertide, a season of feasting has begun (lasting until Pentecost), are there any changes in your spiritual practices?
2. Can you think of a person or a time in your life when you were loved better than you deserved?

Learn and Apply

1. Did anything specific stand out to you from the message? This is frequently how the Holy Spirit speaks to us.
2. When you mess up, how difficult is it for you to acknowledge the wrong and make amends?
3. In your time following Jesus, how has your understanding of what Jesus asks of you changed?
4. Jesus commissioned Peter pastorally (“take care of my sheep”). What is your sense of particular calling or vocation in this season of life? (Parenting? Teaching? Serving? Evangelism? Learning? Etc.?)
5. What is one way you see yourself being led by Jesus where you do not want to go? (John 21:18)

Care

We ask our groups to focus on three simple practices: to care, learn and pray together. Is there anything in your life that you would like to ask your group to pray for?
