a word from: Caleb

Hey Church Family,

This past week, I had the privilege of taking 47 students and 10 adult leaders to Union University in Jackson, Tennessee for one of my favorite weeks of the year: Centrifuge Camp. A long-standing Cherry Hills Youth Ministry tradition continued this summer with an incredible group of students and leaders. I am continually amazed at how, in His kindness, God brings together exactly the people He knows need to be at camp. The spiritual encouragement we experienced throughout the week will carry with us for the rest of the summer.

From sermons that sparked meaningful conversations, to worship that left us in awe of God, to the countless moments of laughter and fellowship shared together, FUGE gave us memories that will last a lifetime.

This year's theme focused on Jesus as our Good Shepherd. The truths of Psalm 23 were woven throughout every aspect of camp and echoed repeatedly throughout the week. That consistent focus gave us much to learn, reflect on, and carry home with us.

As the week went on, I found myself thanking God for every student who attended. Each one brought something unique and beautiful to the picture of Christ's Church. Different personalities, backgrounds, interests, and stories came together with a shared desire to grow in their relationship with Jesus. It was a joy to watch God work in and through our students while we enjoyed an unforgettable week together.

This week would not have been possible without a church family that believes in investing in the next generation. Thank you for every prayer offered, every dollar given, and every moment spent supporting our students and leaders. We experienced "Life Together" in a beautiful and worshipful way, and my prayer is that the lessons learned and memories made this week will continue to shape our students for years to come.

Thank you, Cherry Hills, for making weeks like this possible.
