

Life Group Discussion Guide

A life group is a formational community that gathers regularly to care, learn, and pray together. These questions may form the basis of your conversation and are designed to help participants listen and respond to God through personal and scriptural reflection, as well as stirring an imagination for how to practice the way of Jesus.

Groups are encouraged before beginning to have a moment of prayerful stillness, collecting your scattered attention to God, and then if helpful to connect with one another through a conversation starter question.

Questions

1. Spend some time looking at the booklet, specifically pages II-IV as a group. We encourage you to use these individually but also together as a way to dig deeper in the study of Romans together. We suggest starting with these exercises before moving to the specific Life Group Questions when you gather each week!
2. What did/do you know about the book of Romans before this last Sunday? Did the introduction add anything to your previous understanding? If so, what?
3. Why is Romans considered so important?
4. Why did Paul write Romans?

As you listened to the reading of Romans 1-4 answer the following questions:

- a. Was only listening to the words a challenge for you? What did you learn from that experience about yourself?
 - b. How did Romans 1-4 make you feel?
 - c. What themes/words/phrases most drew your attention?
5. What do you hope to get out of studying Romans?
 6. Spend time praying for each other as you step into this series together. Ask the Lord not just for knowledge, but for transformation
