Thinking Biblically About ...:

Join us on Sunday, October 4, (6-8pm), for our second forum. We will be exploring the topic: Thinking Biblically About... How Christians Should Respond to Gender Dysphoria.

This forum is not intended to debate whether changing one's sex is biblical. Cherry Hills holds to the biblical teaching that God created humanity male and female, and we remain committed to a biblical sexual ethic. Instead, our focus will be on a different question: How should Christians respond to individuals experiencing gender dysphoria in a way that reflects both the truth of God's Word and the compassion of Christ?

If you would like to join us, please register in advance so we can prepare well. Childcare is available for ages birth through 5th grade. Scan the qr code or text "TBA" to 217.546.4818.

Prayer Walk:

Set aside time on Thursday, October 15, from 7am to 7pm for a self-guided Prayer Walk. We are praying for our community, church family, and ourselves. You'll start in the lobby and follow the prayer guide at your own pace.

a word from: Chuck

Good morning!

I am writing to inform you of a staff transition that began in August and will continue through early October. Over the summer, Isaac Elliott accepted a position as our part time Student Worship Director. His first day with our students was Sunday August 23rd. As student worship director, Isaac will be responsible for building a culture that supports a young and growing community of artistic leaders equipped not only to lead their peers in worship during our Wednesday evening (MSM) and Sunday evening (HSM) gatherings but also to use their gifts beyond our walls. Isaac will take over for his sister Emma who has been on staff in this capacity since last summer and is transitioning off our staff team to prepare to become a first time mom in late October.

A few things about this transition:

First, I want to acknowledge what a blessing it's been to work with both Emma and Isaac. Their passion for the arts, competency in their craft and love of our students and the Church is evident in the way they give themselves to this ministry.

Second, I want to acknowledge how grateful I am to be a part of a church family that understands the importance of art in the Church. Art can help bring the gospel to life, equip the body to worship, and unite and inspire a local community of believers to see and live for Jesus. Perhaps this is why artists are consistently encouraged to help lead the gathered assembly in the scriptures. What better time to learn to do this than in your teenage years. If you are a student or parent interested in more information about our student worship ministry, please reach out to Isaac@cherryhillsfamily.org or myself at Chuck@cherryhillsfamily.org.

And finally, please keep both Emma and Isaac in addition to the Budill family and our student ministry in prayer as these transitions take place. Love you much church family.
