

Life Group Discussion Guide

Week of September 27 | Romans 1:8–17

Groups should care, learn, and pray together, using these questions as a guide to respond to God.

Questions

1. Read Romans 1:8–17. What stood out to you from Sunday's message or from Romans 1:8–17, and why?
2. Paul's life was transformed by the gospel. Looking back, how has following Jesus changed the way you see God, yourself, or other people?
3. Paul believed Christians need mutual encouragement. When have other believers strengthened your faith? And how might God want to use you to encourage someone else right now?
4. Paul prayed consistently for people he had never met. What does your prayer life reveal about what is most important to you right now?
5. The message described the gospel as good news that addresses our greatest need. What "good news" are people commonly looking for today, and how is the gospel different?
6. Which of the four words from the message challenged or encouraged you most: power, salvation, believe, or righteousness? Why?
7. Paul felt "obligated" to share the gospel because he had received something too valuable to keep for himself. Who has God placed in your life that may need to experience the power of the gospel?
