

Life Group Discussion Guide

Week of October 18 | Romans 2:17-29

Groups should care, learn, and pray together, using these questions as a guide to respond to God.

Questions

1. What stood out to you from the message this week? Why?
2. Paul challenges people who were trusting in their religious background, knowledge, and activity. What are some “Christian things” we can subtly begin trusting in instead of Jesus?
3. The message contrasted behavior modification with heart transformation. What’s the difference between trying harder to behave like a Christian and allowing the Holy Spirit to change your heart? What might each look like practically?
4. How have you measured your spiritual growth in the past (or even in the present)?
5. The fruit of the Spirit gives us a different way to measure spiritual growth: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Which one do you most want the Holy Spirit to grow in you right now, and why?
6. The message ended with confession of sins in our thoughts, words, and actions. Which of those three areas is easiest for you to overlook or excuse? What might honest confession in that area look like?
7. How will you apply this to your life this week?
