a word from: Jeff

Last Sunday, Pastor Steve emphasized the importance of each of us serving with the spiritual gifts God has given us. We're grateful for the way so many of you already do this! If you'll permit me, I'd like to celebrate a specific ministry leader in our church family today.

✓ A faithful leader in our church. Terri Woolbright is stepping down after 20 years as the volunteer leader of our women's ministry team. If like me, you've appreciated her service, I invite you to tell her in person or with an encouragement note (found in the seatback).

✓ Terri's heartfelt conviction. She has often said, "If we want to impact families, minister to the women first, the children and husbands will see the change and they will follow." We have seen this come true. And more and more, we agree with her conviction.

✓ There are many others. Terri would be quick to point out that she's been part of a great team the past 20 years. For example, Barb Straub, before going to heaven 2.5 years ago, was a quiet, yet mighty shepherd in our church who also served on this team. And there are others, lots of others, too many to name here.

✓ Women's ministry in our church. We celebrate all the events, retreats, Bible studies and small groups that have and are being offered. Christie Davis leads a Tuesday afternoon Bible study and has for 25+ years. Wednesday morning Mom's group is going strong after 35+ years. Table Talk For Six, Kay Titchenal's Sunday morning class, Bible Study Fellowship (BSF), Kathy Hall's Thursday night WOW study, First Place For Health, and now Revelation Wellness to name a few.

✓ Onward with Jesus. Even if I didn't list your name, if you've served with your gifts in some way inside or outside our church (either near or far), the LORD sees and cheers you on.

It's a privilege to serve with you, Cherry Hills family.
